Record Number of Consignments for Expo Sale

Thirty-one consignors from four states have entered a total of 64 lots in this year's Iowa Select Hereford Sale, set for Feb. 17 at the Iowa Beef Expo in Des Moines. Included in the offering are yearling, fall 2009 and 2-year-old bulls, bred and open heifers and several embryo packages featuring the genetics of some of the breed's most popular sires. There will be an excellent set of show heifer prospects that will be eligible for this summer's Junior National Hereford Expo in Kansas City. See ad elsewhere in this newsletter for a complete list of consignors.

Breeders and other interested parties are invited to a free, come-as-you-are open forum with Jack Ward, the American Hereford Association's chief operating officer and director of breed improvement, at 5 p.m. on Wednesday, Feb. 16, in the lower level of the Gammon Barn on the state fairgrounds. Ward will update attendees on new programs at the national level and will also answer questions from the audience.

All sale cattle will be paraded at 9 a.m. on Thursday, Feb. 17, in Pioneer Pavilion, during which time the sale order will be established. The sale starts at noon in the North Annex of the Cattle Barn with Monte Lowderman as auctioneer.

Approximately 700 catalogs have been mailed to all current IHBA and IJHA members as well as to previous buyers and others who have requested them or who registered for buyer numbers at previous Expo sales. The catalog is also available online at www.iowahereford.org or www.herefordmarketplace.com.

If you can't make it to Des Moines, the sale will be broadcast by LiveAuctions.tv. To bid online, you must register for a buyer number at least two days prior to the sale.

Cookies for the IHBA booth on both Wednesday and Thursday are always welcome.

Directory to Debut Soon

At press time, the 2011-2012 Iowa Hereford Breeders Association directory was at the printer and scheduled to be mailed by the end of January. In addition to all current IHBA and IJHA members, it is being sent to some 5,400 cow-calf producers in Iowa, all county Extension offices and major sale barns in the state.

Additional copies will be available at the Beef Expo. If you would like extras to distribute to your customers, contact Becky Simpson.

A big THANK YOU is due to the advertisers who supported this effort.

Cow-Calf Conference, ICA Convention to Hold Joint Event

The 40th anniversary Cornbelt Cow-Calf Conference and the Iowa Cattlemen's Association (ICA) Convention have joined forces to hold one major event on Friday and Saturday, Feb. 25-26 at the Bridgeview Center in Ottumwa.

The Iowa Hereford Breeders Association has reserved booth space for this event and needs volunteers to help staff it. If you plan to attend the conference/convention and would like to spend a couple of hours helping promote the breed and our association, please contact David Trowbridge at 402-740-7033.

Important Note: For a prepaid fee of $20, IHBA members with cattle for sale may be included on a hand-out sheet given to visitors to the booth. Send your check along with your name, address, state location (NE, SW, etc.), phone number and animals for sale to the administrative secretary or bring them to the Expo. Deadline is Feb. 17.

Even if you missed getting in the directory, you can still join IHBA. Send your $50 2011 dues to Becky Simpson, 13359 280th St., Redfield, IA 50233-6014.

Johnson Re-Elected

Board Votes to Combine State Fair Shows

Following discussion on a recommendation from the association's State Fair breed liaisons, the IHBA board voted to combine the horned and polled Hereford shows at the Iowa State Fair, beginning with the 2011 event. A major factor in the decision was the desire to present a stronger and more unified face to the industry and the public. It was noted that a combined Hereford show would likely be the third largest breed show at the fair.

The board also contacted the State Fair regarding location of the show and has subsequently learned that it has been moved back to the outdoor arena adjacent to the new stalling barn. A list of seven potential judges was submitted.

Correction

Due to incorrect reporting by two counties, the list of county champion exhibitors in the last newsletter contained some misinformation.

In Cedar County, Delaney Rife exhibited the champion horned heifer and the champion steer, while Jenna Rohret had the champion polled heifer. At the Warren County Fair, the champion steer was exhibited by Katie Cheers.

Spring Advertising Time Approaching

At their December meeting, the IHBA board of directors voted to again sponsor a co-op advertising campaign this spring. The three new AHA ads will be the focal point. Breeders' cost will be $200 each.

Ads will be placed in Midwest Marketer and Livestock Plus. Watch for a special informational mailing to all IHBA members in late February or call Becky now to reserve your spot!

Want to Get on the Bus???

At its December meeting, the IHBA board discussed possible options for increasing participation in this year's tour. One suggestion was to charter a bus to take attendees to the various stops. It would depart from and return to a designated location; riders would pay a flat fee to help defray costs.

Snacks (and restrooms) would be available on the bus and there would be lots of opportunities to visit with and get to know your fellow breeders.

The board is seeking input from the membership as to whether to pursue this. Please let any board member or the administrative secretary know if you are interested and would be likely to ride the bus if the option were available; and also what you would consider a fair rate to charge for doing so.

Strong Prices at January Calf Sales

Consignors at the annual Hereford-influence calf sale at the Anita Livestock Auction on Jan. 22 hit an "up-market" and garnered strong prices on cattle in all weight groups. Approximately 550 head went through the ring, most of them straight Herefords. The remainder were black whitefaces and they brought a premium.

In general, 600-lb. steers averaged in the low $130/cwt range. One large group of 32 straight Hereford steers, averaging 600 lb. brought $130.50/cwt. Other weights did just as well, with a group of 31 mostly black baldies averaging 425 lb. selling for $146.50 and 22 mostly black whitefaced steers with an average weight of 466 lb. brought $159.50. Two large groups of mixed heifers, averaging 488 lb. and 550 lb. went for $135 and $129.50, respectively.

The Greater Midwest Certified Hereford Calf Sale in Carthage, IL, on Jan. 4 also hit the market at the time. There were 516 head sold and they matched the prices paid two days later for 1,000 head of primarily black cattle. Here are the breakdowns on straightbred Herefords: 34 head, average weight 417 -- $1.37/lb.; 62 head, average weight 629 -- $1.25/lb.; 23 head, average weight 801 lb., $1.22/lb.

IOWA JUNIOR HEREFORD ASSOCIATION

Dear Iowa Hereford Breeder Members,

This year the Iowa Junior Hereford Association is asking for help from the senior members of the IHBA. Financial assistance donated to the IJHA will be used to support activities including the Preview Show, PRIDE Convention and Jr. National Expo.

The Iowa juniors work very hard to control expenses and hold down fees to encourage participation by any interested junior member. In the last 2-3 years we have seen an increase in junior memberships which in turn increases participation in all activities. However, some costs have gone up but the balance of funds the juniors use to operate with has not increased with the costs. To ensure that junior members have an opportunity to enjoy all the benefits the Hereford breed has to offer, the IJHA needs some help.

Any level of support will be welcomed by the IJHA and if you have any questions please feel free to contact Scott & Teresa Amendt, IJHA advisors, phone 515-351-1007 or 515-351-1017. In previous years donations have been tied to a specific event or division; please call us if you prefer this method.

We have been informed that all donations to the Iowa Junior Hereford Association are tax deductible.

Checks can be made out to the Iowa Junior Hereford Association and mailed to the following address:

Scott & Teresa Amendt, 125 Geneva Dr., Pleasantville, Ia. 50225

We sincerely thank you for your support.

Scott & Teresa

Juniors: Take Note!

Juniors entering heifers in the Winter Beef Expo show are reminded to be sure to specify whether your animal is "horned" or "polled" on the entry form. If in doubt, check the upper righthand corner of the registration paper.

She Said "Yes"!

Anthony Monroe, son of Al and Brenda Robison of BAJA Cattle, Alden, and Katie Beeler, daughter of Dennis and Roxanne Beeler of Truro, became engaged Nov. 22 and are planning to be married on Sept. 24.

Attention: Graduating Seniors

If you are graduating this spring (or have graduated since last spring) from high school, college, trade school or community college, we would like to recognize you in the next newsletter. Please send your name, school, degree earned (if applicable), graduation date and future plans to Becky Simpson, 13359 280th St., Redfield, IA 50233-6014; or e-mail becksimp@aol.com by May 9.

AHA Director Notes

by Jerry Huth, AHA Director

Greetings to my friends in Iowa! Winter certainly is upon us, but we can look forward to the optimism that spring will bring.

I just got back from Denver and what a tremendous exposition! You talk about optimism! There were tremendous crowds, the cattle looked great, many great ideas and philosophies were exchanged, and quite a few cattle were traded. What was evident to me were the large number of breeders from other breeds “looking over the fence” to see what we are doing in the Hereford breed. Keep up the good work and keep the momentum going!

Here are a couple of notes to have you catch up with the happenings and give you a “heads up” for what will be happening in the Hereford breed:

The Hereford Breed is Booming! The AHA continues excellent growth in registrations, cow numbers, and transfers. This is a reflection of the rejuvenation in the demand for the breed. We have been hitting a “home run” on our ad campaigns. We are one of the few breed associations showing substantial growth.

Genomics is a “hot button” topic: The AHA is moving toward genomically enhanced EPD’s. The AHA has an arrangement with the National Beef Cattle Evaluation Consortium in conjunction with MARC and other universities in developing a Hereford specific panel for various traits. The AHA is upgrading its computer system to make the information from genomics testing a part of the EPD profile on the animal. This will give you, the breeder, more fodder in backing up your claims about your animals. Stay tuned—this will affect the way we breed cattle in the future.

DNA Testing of all Walking Herd Sires: The AHA Board has adopted a policy to DNA test all walking herd sires whose progeny will be registered in the AHA. This is effective with the herd bulls born in 2011. Right now, approximately 65% of all calves registered with the AHA have a sire that has a DNA profile. So if you have a bull calf born in 2011 that you think will be siring calves that will be registered in the AHA, it is advisable to get him DNA tested. This is a quality control issue. We have caught numerous mistakes in the registration of animals. Hopefully, this will help correct the problems.

Good Luck at the Iowa Beef Expo: Iowa hosts one of the best Beef Expos in the country. It is a great event to look at cattle, get some ideas from the trade show, and fantastic for “brainstorming” with fellow breeders. Keep up the Hereford momentum! We are in for a tremendous ride if we can make the type of cattle that the commercial cattleman wants.

Hopefully, our paths will cross. See you down the road!

Thank You...

Thank you for the special plaque you gave me for my champion Hereford. I was surprised when I got your letter. It is a really cool plaque and it’s going to hang on my bedroom wall. My Hereford heifer, Valentine, is supposed to calve in January and I’m really excited to see her baby! Thanks again.

Cole Dallmeyer, Washington County

I would like to thank you for sponsoring many awards which I received this summer from your association. In particular, the one I won for having champion Hereford at my county fair. I thought it was very unique to have a piece of the Gammon Barn on the plaque. I also appreciated the one from the Iowa State Fair from winning champion junior heifer as well as champion open Polled Hereford female. This year was the first year I have shown a Hereford and my family and I will have many great memories from her. Thanks again for your support.

Kennedy Core

Thank you for the plaque I received at our county’s awards program. I showed the supreme champion and Hereford champion at the 2010 Fayette County Fair. Your thoughtfulness is greatly appreciated.

Tyler Rau

Thank you to the Iowa Hereford Breeders Association for giving $20 to the purebred Hereford steers. Also I would like to thank you for giving the Gammon plaque for the county champion Hereford. Thank you so much!

Jackie Wenzel

Thank you for the plaques we received.

ANNUAL TREASURER'S REPORT
Jan. 1 – Dec. 31, 2010

Following is the 2010 calendar year treasurer's report. It should be noted that the large ending balance is due in large part to income from the 2011-2012 directory and that most expenditures for the directory will be paid in 2011. Also, the line item for dues reflects not only dues collected for 2010, but also 108 members who paid 2011 dues in 2010 in order to be included in the directory; thus, a substantial portion of income for 2011 has already been received. Interest earned is from a money-market account currently paying 0.91%.
