Join Us at the Iowa Beef Expo!

Whether you're looking to find your next herd bull, brood cow or show heifer; see what's new in the beef industry; help honor fellow breeders; support the IHBA and IJHA; or simply reconnect and socialize with other Hereford enthusiasts, the annual Iowa Beef Expo is the place to be. Events of particular interest to the Hereford community take place Saturday, Feb. 14; Tuesday, Feb. 17; and Wednesday, Feb. 18.

Seedstock Producer of the Year Recognition

Saturday, Feb. 14 – 10 a.m. – Bull Pen, Cattle Barn South Annex

The accolades keep on coming for Goehring Herefords of Libertyville, who add 2026 Iowa Seedstock Producer of the Year to the Golden Breeder recognition bestowed in October by the American Hereford Association. Bill and Becky Goehring and family will be honored during the Iowa Beef Expo's kickoff breakfast a 10 a.m. in the Bull Pen, located in the south annex of the Cattle Barn. IHBA members are encouraged to come and help celebrate this great accomplishment.

The Goehring's portrait will be hung among the gallery of seedstock honorees in the Penningroth Sale Center, joining past Hereford winners Doug & Marilyn Lenth (2018), Buell Jackson (1994), Jim Hemmingsen (1989), Gene Wiese (1987) and Robert Dittmer (1984).

Iowa Hereford Banquet & Social

Tuesday, Feb. 17 – Toad Valley Golf Course, 230 NE 80th St., Pleasant Hill

Social (cash bar): 5:30 p.m. Dinner: 6:30 p.m. ($30 adults, $20 children 12 & under)

Reservation Deadline Feb. 2 – send with payment to Marilyn Lenth, 13690 130th St., Postville, IA 52162

Here's your chance to catch up with your fellow Hereford breeders while supporting the IHBA, the juniors and the queen program. The IJHA's annual silent auction will take place during the social hour, while a live auction after the meal will feature preview show award sponsorships, the 2026 Iowa Hereford Queen's belt buckle and prime advertising pages in the 2027-28 directory (see additional information elsewhere in this newsletter).

Highlight of the post-meal program will be the induction of the newest member of the Iowa Hereford Hall of Fame. Mark Ohrt of Haverhill is being honored for his significant contributions to the Hereford breed in Iowa. A complete biography and picture will appear in the next newsletter.

Iowa Select Hereford Sale

Wednesday, Feb. 18 – Iowa State Fairgrounds

Parade: 8:00 a.m., Pioneer Pavilion Sale: 11:30 a.m., Cattle Barn North Annex

This year's hand-selected offering consists of 48 lots from 27 consignors in five states, with something for everyone – 2-year-old and yearling bulls, cow-calf pairs, bred heifers and open yearling heifers. Catalogs will be mailed to all IHBA and IJHA members and can also be viewed on the "Show and Sale" page of the association's website, www.iowahereford.org. ### Directory Advertising Opportunity

At its January meeting, the IHBA board approved publishing another membership directory for 2027-28. Megan Hopkins will again serve as coordinator.

Ad costs will remain the same as the current (2025-26) issue and members will be contacted later this year about participating, but those interested in one of the four primary “prime pages” will have a special opportunity at the Expo banquet to lock in their spot.

During the live auction at the banquet, the board is auctioning off the following advertising pages:

- Back Cover
- Inside Back Cover
- Inside Front Cover
- Opposite Inside Front Cover (page 1)

Contact Megan at 712-790-6652 for more information, including starting bid prices, or if you’d like to bid but are unable to attend the banquet.

Welcome, New Members!

Complete contact information can be found on the “Members” page of the IHBA website.

Simpson Returns As Newsletter Editor

Beginning with this issue (her 119th, but who’s counting?), former administrative secretary Becky Simpson assumes the role of newsletter editor on a contract basis.

All newsletter information – news and advertising – should be submitted to her at becksimp@aol.com. She can be reached by phone at 515-833-2991 (home) or 515-707-2657 (cell).

Inquiries regarding advertising rates, subscriptions and billing should be directed to administrative secretary Marilyn Lenth.

Royalty Reach-Out

By Jenna Bailey, queen coordinator

Are you a young woman passionate about Iowa Herefords and our state association?

Are you between the ages of 15 and 22?

If so, the Hereford Royalty program may be the perfect opportunity for you! We are seeking two young ladies to represent and serve the Hereford breed as the Iowa Hereford Queen and Princess. Applications are due April 1, 2026. Rules, qualifications and the application link can be found on the “Juniors” page of the Iowa Hereford Breeders Association website (www.iowahereford.org).

Current Iowa Hereford Queen Addison Wall will present a recap of her year of service at the IHBA annual banquet on Feb.17. During the banquet, we will also be auctioning off sponsorship for this year’s queen’s belt buckle.

County Champion Award Winners

Thank you for the very nice award. I was honored to have the Champion Hereford Heifer at the Mississippi Valley Fair. It was a great experience.
Reed Powell, Scott County (pictured left)

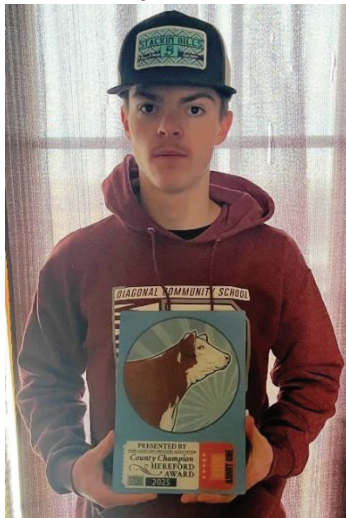

Thank you so much for the continued support of the County Champion awards. Your recognition and dedication to the breed are greatly appreciated.
Kennedy Rife, Louisa County (pictured right)

I want to express my sincere thank you for honoring me on exhibiting the champion Hereford steer at the Jones County Fair. This was my first time ever raising a calf and I was very excited I got to have a Hereford! I have grown to love the breed so much that when I had the opportunity to invest in my first heifer, I chose a Hereford! I am looking forward to showing my Hereford heifer, Ann, next summer at the fair and will be starting my cattle herd with her. Thank you for this very special award. Wyatt Schoenherr (not pictured)

GRADUATION

CONGRATULATIONS to two young women from our Iowa Hereford family for being awarded their degrees at Iowa State University's December graduation.

Former Iowa Hereford Queen and current IJHA board member Carlee Cremeens earned her bachelor's degree in ag business. Starting in June, she will be working as an insurance specialist for Rain and Hail, doing crop insurance. She will have a 6-month training period from June through December in Johnston, then will be relocated to an as yet unknown location. In the meantime, she is staying in Ames and working at the daycare where she has worked throughout college.

Haley (Greiman) Sterle received her doctorate in immunobiology. She is continuing to work at USDA in Ames as a post-doctoral scientist to continue her research, with the goal of working on vaccine development in livestock. Haley is the second Dr. Sterle in the family – her mother-in-law, Dr. Jodi Sterle, is a professor and undergraduate teaching coordinator in the department of animal science at ISU.

Attention: Class of 2026!

If you're graduating from high school, college or trade school, please submit graduation information, future plans and an electronic photo to Becky Simpson, becksimp@aol.com, by May 10 so we can recognize you in the next newsletter.

Thanks Again...

The IHBA received this special thank you note from Cedar County Champion Hereford Award winner Boyd Schroeder, who decorated it with his own hand-drawn "headshot" of his prize-winning polled heifer.
